BOSTON, APRIL 13.

WE hear from London, that the Honourable R. Lee, Eſq; and Sir Thomas Stapleton, Bart. the two Members for the city of Oxford, received a letter from Philip Ward, John Treacher, Thomas Wiſe, John Nicholes, Sir Thomas Munday, John Phillips, Iſaac Laurence, Richard Tawney, Thomas Robinſon, and John Brown, the Mayor and Aldermen of that city, informing them, that unleſs they paid down the ſum of ſeven thouſand five hundred pounds ſterling, they ſhould not be choſen to repreſent that city in the enſuing parliament, to which the following noble and patriotic anſwer was returned——That they never would buy them, as they never intended to ſell them.

The letter was laid before a certain great aſſembly, and judged an high and flagrant breach of the privilege of the houſe, and tending to ſubvert the freedom and independence of parliament, and by virtue of an order of the houſe, the above mentioned perſons were brought up to London, and committed priſoners to Newgate, but being ſoon tired of their lodgings, they preſented a petition to the houſe, expreſſing their unfeigned ſorrow for their heinous offence, and humbly repreſenting that the continuance of their confinement would be of the utmoſt ill conſequence to themſelves and families, and that ſome of the Petitioners being in a very bad ſtate of health, their lives were in imminent danger; and therefore praying the houſe to take their unhappy circumſtances into conſideration. Accordingly, the day following, they were brought to the bar of the houſe, where they, upon their knees, received a reprimand from the Speaker, and were ordered to be diſcharged, paying their fees.

Private letters by Captain Scott, mention, that a ſalary of two hundred pounds ſterling a year, is, or will be ſettled on the Honourable Thomas Hutchinſon, Eſq; Lieutenant Governor of this Province.

MAY 2. The late Speaker of the Houſe of Repreſentatives, has received a very genteel Letter from the Speaker of the Houſe of Burgeſſes in Virginia, in Anſwer to the circular Letter of the Houſe written in the laſt Seſſion of our General Aſſembly, which got to Williamſburg in good Time, as their Aſſembly was to ſit in a few Days. Their Principles of Liberty, it is ſaid, are ſo well eſtabliſhed, and the Tendency of the late Acts of Parliament impoſing Duties and Taxes on the Colonies are ſo manifeſt, as to leave no Doubt but they will approve of the Meaſures taken, and readily concur in the Means propoſed for the Support of their Conſtitutional Rights. Their noble, timely and ſpirited Reſolutions in the year 1765, ſo ſatisfactory to the People of America, afford abundant Reaſon for us ever to reſpect that province, and to ſpeak of them in the ſame Terms in which the Honourable Gentleman is pleaſed politely to mention this "as very vigilant and ſtedfaſt Guardians of American Rights."

PROVIDENCE, (Rhode-Iſland) APRIL 30.

The following account is taken from one of the late Iriſh prints, viz. The national debt is now computed to about One Hundred and Forty-five Millions of Pounds, ſterling. The number of pounds weight in ſilver, Troy-weight, is Forty-eight Millions Three Hundred and Thirty-three; which allowing one Ton or Twenty Hundred Pounds weight Averdupoiſe, to be a proper travelling load for a waggon with four horſes, it would require Nineteen Thouſand Eight Hundred and Eighty-ſix waggons, of four horſes each, to travel with this ſum. And the number of horſes would be Seventy-nine Thouſand Four Hundred and Forty-four. Farther, if we allow to each waggon in a line a length of eighteen yards to move in (and the allowance cannot well be leſs to keep the noſe of the fore horſe from being hurt by the tail of the preceeding waggon) this train of waggons would reach Two Hundred and Three miles.

NEW-PORT, (Rhode-Iſland) MAY 9.

At the General Election held in this Town, on Wedneſday laſt, the Honourable Joſias Lyndon, Eſq; was choſen Governor, and the Hon. Nicholas Cooke, Eſq; Deputy-Governor of this Colony.

NEW-YORK, APRIL 18.

A very beneficial Branch of Trade has been long neglected in this Province, that is, WHALING; but we have ſome Hopes of ſeeing it revived, as Mr. Robert Murray, and Meſſrs. Franklins, have, at their own Expence, fitted out a Sloop for that Purpoſe, which ſailed Yeſterday. Holland, a Merchant that is not concerned in the Whale Fiſhery, is deſpiſed by all the trading Part of the Country. And we are told that the Iſland of Nantucket alone, laſt Year, got Oil, &c. to the amount of 70,000l.

Moſt of the merchants and importers of goods, in this City, have already ſubſcribed a voluntary engagement to each other, that they will not ſell on their own accounts or on Commiſſions, nor buy or ſell for any perſon whomſoever, any goods, (ſave a very few enumerated articles) which ſhall be ſhipped from Great-Britain after the firſt day of October next, until the Act of Parliament impoſing duties on paper, glaſs, &c. be repealed: Provided Boſton and Philadelphia ſhall ſimilar meaſures by the firſt of June next. The Gentlemen of the committee of merchants, appointed at their laſt meeting, have found the inhabitants ſo very unanimous, that it is thought there is hardly an importer in the city, but what have ſubſcribed or will ſubſcribe.

Extract of a late Letter from London.

"You may tell it publicly, from good Authority, that our gracious Sovereign is no Way offended at the Oeconomy of the Americans,——is much pleaſed that they ſhould provide for themſelves, and that no Part of his Subjects ſhould be oppreſſed by other Parts. No Act of Parliament ſuppreſſes your Paper Money; but you are to be relieved by having a Bank, as they have in Ireland and Scotland. All due Attention will be paid to any Petition from the People by the Miniſter for the American Department, and I hope it will not be in the Power of a few to oppreſs and injure the Whole. There has been ſtrange Confuſion about Paper Currency, ſome have petitioned for, others againſt it, and an American Gentleman, lately examined before the Lords of Trade, poſitively ſpoke againſt it."

MAY 2. The Amazon, Smith, from London, but laſt from the Downs, in 7 Weeks and 4 Days, has brought over about 40 wealthy Families, from Derbyſhire, in order to ſettle in this, or ſome of the neighbouring Provinces, as may beſt ſuit them.

Extract of a Letter from Montreal, dated April 16.

"Laſt Monday Night, about 11 o'Clock, a Fire broke out in one of the upper Streets, about the Middle of this Town, occaſioned by a lighted Candle being carried into the Stable of Monſ. Giaſſon: The Flames took their Courſe from near St. Lawrence's Gate, and went through the Provoſt's, Mr. Grozier's, Jacobs, and the Black Siſters Nunnery, raging with ſuch Violence, that in about two Hours, upwards of 80 Houſes were conſumed, and 107 Families diſlodged; and 'tis thought, had it not been for the Chateau, which was ſlated, and by that Means ſtopped the Fury of the Flames, the whole Town would have been conſumed. The Loſs is not yet known, but I imagine it will amount to near 25,000l. Sterling."

PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 21.

Extract of a Letter from London, January 9.

"I have only Time to tell you, that this Packet carries the King's Orders to Sir William Johnſon, to ſettle the Boundary with the Indians. My Lord Shelburne made a Point of getting it done, before he gave over the American Part of his Office to Lord Hillſborough, who is now a third Secretary of State for that Department, a very able Man, and a Friend to the Colonies."

APRIL 28. Captain White, from Liſbon, adviſes, that a Fleet of 18 Sail of Merchantmen, and a 64 Gun-Ship, were under ſailing Orders for the Brazils; and that the Man of War had two Governors on board.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated Feb. 18, 1768.

"We have the Satisfaction of informing you, that from the preſent Appearance of Things, the Intereſt of the Colonies is here conſidered to be more free from Enemies than for ſome Time paſt; indeed many People aſſert, that thoſe who have been the moſt bitter, are changing their Tone.—The new Secretary of State for America, gives ſtrong Aſſurances of his Good-will towards you, and we hope Time will evince Benefits to accrue from the Creation of this new Office, which by many is much exclaimed againſt, as an Extenſion of the Power of the Crown. On the other Hand, others are ſtrongly of Opinion, that the Colonies will reap Advantage therefrom, as every Body will now know where to apply for Relief and Aſſiſtance, which heretofore was difficult to be aſcertained from whom it was to be expected. The Conduct of your neighbouring Province appears to be diſpenſed with. And had not the Conduct of the Aſſociators at Boſton cauſed ſevere Reflections on them, Matters would now wear a tolerable Aſpect. But we are really of the Opinion, that theſe People are giving a Handle to their Enemies at this Juncture, by purſuing a Meaſure ſo incompatible with their Intereſt."

Extract of a Letter from London, March 1.

"The change of the miniſtry that has juſt happened, is not looked upon as a favourable omen for America; your friends and well-wiſhers are under very great anxiety; as all the offices, from the higheſt to the loweſt, are filled with thoſe who voted and proteſted againſt the repeal of the ſtamp-act.

"The following Lords, who are juſt come in, in particular ſigned the proteſt, 4 Duke of Bedford, Duke of Marlborough, Earl Temple, Earls of Gower, Sandwich, Halifax, Eglinton, Suffolk, and Coventry, Viſcount Weymouth, Viſcount Townſhend, Lord Lyttelton.

"Voted againſt it, Duke of Northumberland, Earl of Bute, Earls of Denbigh, Hillſborough, Litchfield, Lord Mansfield, Lord Cathcart.

"It is alſo affirmed here, that Lord Bute has the ſupreme direction.—George Grenville, Eſq; is likewiſe in office.

"An account of the whale fins and oil imported here from America, from Chriſtmas 1765, to Michaelmas 1767, is juſt laid before the houſe of commons.

"The parliament have reſolved, that ſeventy thouſand pounds ſterling, of the duties to be raiſed in America, from February 2, 1768, to April 5, 1769, ſhall be applied towards the defending, protecting and ſecuring, the Britiſh colonies in America.

"The parliament have now before them, copies of letters from every Governor on the continent, and alſo a ſtate of the manufactures of ſome of the colonies."

Extract of a Letter from Fort Pitt, dated April 6.

"An Expreſs arrived here the Night before laſt, by whom we learn, that the Indians have, ſince the 9th of laſt January, murdered three Traders, at different Places, ſome diſtance from Detroit. One of them I have been very well acquainted with for many Years, his Name was Frederick Hambach, a German, he ſerved two Campaigns in the Capacity of an Officer among the Provincial Troops, and after they were reduced he became an Indian Trader. On the 9th of laſt January, being juſt arrived at his Houſe, in an Indian Village on Miamis River, with a new Cargo of Indian Goods, from Detroit, ſix Indians, who he ſuppoſed came to trade with him, lodged in his Houſe all Night; in the Morning they aſked him ſome Queſtions about his Goods, particularly Liquors. He told them he had Plenty of every Thing they wanted, except Liquor, of which he would let them have a hearty Drink, as ſoon as it ſhould come to Hand, in the Courſe of Trade, but had none for Sale. After finding out where the Goods were, they tomahawked him, in cold Blood, without having taſted Liquors of any Kind, or being otherwiſe provoked, and went afterwards to demand the Goods of a Frenchman that had them in Poſſeſſion, living at about ſix Miles Diſtance, on the ſame River, whom they compelled, by Threats, to give them up. The Expreſs ſay, that the Goods were afterwards reſcued. The other Trader, they ſay, was a Relation of Major Rogers, and was killed at St. Joſeph's, about the Beginning of February laſt. Theſe two Traders, already mentioned, are all that are taken Notice of in the Letters from Detroit; but the Expreſſes ſay, that they ſaw the Corpſe of another Trader, at ſome Diſtance, on this Side Detroit, who was murdered by a Frenchman that lives entirely with the Indians. Pondiac's Gang is charged with all theſe late Maſſacres, though he is ſaid to have been abſent theſe ſix Months paſt.

"The general Opinion is, both at this Poſt and Detroit, that the Indians will have Scalps by Way of Revenge; it is ſaid there was an Indian murdered, not long ago, by white Men, near Detroit. It is thought they will not come to a Rupture. There is a grand Treaty to be held here ſoon, after which their real Intentions will be diſcovered.

"Fort Pitt, April 8, 1768. Colonel Croghan is arrived, and the Indians are coming in faſt to the Treaty."

Extract of a Letter from Detroit, dated February 26.

"The Governor of Machilimakanac, Major Rogers, is in cloſe Confinement there for treaſonable Machinations; he is to be ſent Priſoner down the Country as ſoon as the Seaſon permits: We don't know, for certain, what he has been guilty of."

MAY 9. By Letters from Fort Pitt, of the 10th ult. we learn, that the ſeveral Tribes of Indians, who were to attend the Conference at that Poſt, were to be in by the 20th; and that, from the indefatigable Pains which Colonel Croghan was taking, there was Reaſon to hope he would be able to ſettle the Differences ſubſiſting between them and us, to mutual Satisfaction; tho' the barbarous and cruel Murders which have, within theſe few Years, been committed on the Friends and Relatives of thoſe Indians, render the Work very difficult to perfect.

MAY 12. Doctor BENJAMIN FRANKLIN is choſen one of the Royal Society for the preſent Year.

From Scotland we learn, that Dr. WILLIAM SHIPPEN, junior, of this City, was unanimouſly elected a Fellow of the Royal College of Phyſicians at Edinburgh, on the Third of February laſt.

Extract of a Letter from London, February 13, 1768.

"The Adminiſtration is now likely to remain ſettled for ſome conſiderable Time.—The Duke of Grafton is the Cement of the whole; and tho' he hath neither many Family Connections, nor what is ſtill more neceſſary to one of his Station, many parliamentary Ones, he poſſeſſes much of the public Eſteem and Confidence; and all acquieſce in his continuing to take the Lead, which is ſomewhat ſingular, as he is yet a very young Man.

"The Bill for continuing the Reſtraint of Eaſt-India Dividends to 10 per Cent. for one Year longer, is now paſt both Houſes, tho' not without Oppoſition. Mr. D—d-ſw-ll, in the Commons, propoſed, with a View to protract the Matter, to refer the Examination of the Company's Affairs to a ſelect Committee; but Lord N—th ſhewed ſo clearly the Expediency of the Bill, and the Abſurdity of appealing to a Committee, in a Point wherein the Houſe itſelf had already decided, that the Motion was dropt without a Diviſion. Indeed every diſintereſted honeſt Man muſt ſee the Propriety of this Reſtraint; eſpecially thoſe who know and conſider the precarious Tenor upon which they hold their territorial Revenues, which are collected by a Method that varies very little from military Execution, and in which Service our Army there are employed in the Field near nine Months in the Year. Add to this, the Difficulty of inveſting thoſe Revenues (for they cannot be remitted in Specie) and of converting their Commodities into Money, when the European Markets are ſo glutted.——Lord Clive hath of late been extremely ill, and ſet out about three Weeks ago for Nice, as the only Chance he has of prolonging his Life.

"Laſt Monday I heard Lord North open the Budget, which he did to the general Satisfaction. It is needleſs to give the Particulars; but there is to be no new Taxes this Year. We leſſen the National Debt a Trifle, and Borrow, by a Loan, and a Lottery, £. 1,900,000 at three per Cent. to pay of the Remainder of the unfunded 4 per Cent. He aſſured us that we were, in general, in a very proſperous Condition; that the preſent Peace was like to be laſting; but that if contrary to all Expectation, a freſh War ſhould break out, Care ſhould be taken to put the State in the beſt Condition poſſible, to exert ourſelves with Glory in the Proſecution of it. Mr. Grenville, as uſual, endeavoured to find Fault, but to no Purpoſe. His Speech was unanimated and confuſed, and was plainly dictated by Diſcontent and Diſappointment, tho' he affected to ſay, he reckoned it an Honour to be out of Place. An Honour, however, I dare ſay, he would wiſh very ſoon to be ſtript of. In all his Speeches, he never fails to bring in North-America.—In this he obſerved, that after all the Expence we had incurred during the late War, in ridding them of their Enemies the French, the Protection of the Conqueſts we had made there, coſt us annually £. 500,000, a Sum which, in our exhauſted State, with ſuch a Load of Debt, we were, by no Means, able to bear.

"I ſee the Commotions in Boſton, and other Places, are not yet wholly ſubſided; and that ſome over zealous Patriots endeavour to keep up the Ball of Contention, by prompting the People to make public Reſolutions againſt wearing out more expenſive Manufactures; Reſolutions in themſelves by no Meanes blameable, nor of real Importance to the Mother Country, if they are not in a Situation to pay for them. But why all this Buſtle about it, juſt at this Juncture, and juſt after the total Repeal of the Stamp-Act? I will freely give you my Opinion; which is, that nothing is to be apprehended from all this; for that the growing State of the Colonies, both as to Numbers of People, and the Extent of their Settlements, will afford an ample Field for the Conſumption of all the Manufactures we can ſpare them (let them encourage Manufactures among themſelves as much as they pleaſe) for a long Period to come. And as to their Allegiance, which ſome are apprehenſive about here, that is ſecured by their natural Connection with, and ſtrong Attachment to this Country, as well as by their Want of our Protection, without which they are not in a Condition to defend themſelves againſt their and our common Enemies.—Am I, or am I not miſtaken?"

Extract of another Letter from London, MARCH 12, 1768.

"Bating the unavoidable Buſtle, occaſioned by the Elections, we are in a State of perfect Tranquility. No talk of the leaſt Change in the Miniſtry, or any material Alteration of any Kind, or in any Department whatever. Lord Chatham remains in Statu quo.

"The King's Speech, you ſee, is a very good one. I heard him deliver it, which he did, as he always does, with great Propriety. He is much, and deſervedly beloved; for ſurely there is not an honeſter or better natured Man in his Dominions; and if ſome factious Spirits do not interfere, I have no doubt but every Thing will go on very ſmoothly. The great Object is, the Reduction of the public Debt, and the encouragement of every Branch of Commerce, upon which the national Credit wholly depends. I think Things ſeem alſo to be ſomewhat compoſed in America. I cannot ſay what People, who take a partial View of either Side of the Atlantic, may imagine; but this I am certain of, that our Proſperity and Security depend upon our Union, our firm and laſting Union, let who will ſay to the contrary.

"Before next Packet ſails, the Elections will be moſtly over. Much Money will be expended, much Riot will prevail; but there is no Help for it. It is, in ſome Meaſure, the unavoidable Conſequence of our Liberty, which will every now and then run into Licentiouſneſs.——But ſtill take us for all in all, we are the happieſt Nation this World ever contained: And I truſt in Providence, that tho' our public Affairs may now and then wear an unpromiſing Aſpect, and unworthy Men may ſometimes force themſelves into Power, yet I hope, before Matters come to Extremity, the Nation will come to their Senſes, and not ſuffer a Fabric, the Work of Ages, and the Envy of the reſt of the World, to be materially injured.——In this Hope I, for my own Part, remain, and am very happy."

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in London, to another in this City, dated February 25, 1768.

"You will doubtleſs be informed, long before the Receipt of this, of Lord Hillſborough being appointed Secretary of State for America. The Office is not likely to continue long, and (from the preſent Appearance) will be of little Uſe to Great-Britain or the Colonies. Several of the principal Merchants trading to Philadelphia, waited upon him a few Days ago, in order to try, if poſſible, to obtain his Influence for a Paper Currency. He has expreſſed his Sentiments poſitively againſt it; nevertheleſs a larger Number intend waiting on him ſhortly, to ſee what they can do; though they have little Proſpect of ſucceeding."

Extract of a letter from a gentleman at Carliſle, (Cumberland county) April 26.

"It has been reported, that the people at Conegocheague had threatened to ſtop the goods deſigned for preſents to the Indians, and had alſo threatened Mr. Croghan, if he paſſed that way. I have been up there, and can aſſure you, that both reports are entirely groundleſs, and muſt have been raiſed by evil minded perſons, to anſwer ſiniſter ends. I would further inform you, that I lately ſaw one of the gentleman, who has been up to Redſtone Creek, to warn the ſettlers off that land, who informed me, that at their arrival, the people had a meeting, and ſeemed diſpoſed to move off, only reſolved to petition the Governor that they might have their lands again, when purchaſed of the Indians. On the day the petition was to be ſigned, eight Indians of note, belonging to a Mingo town, about 60 miles below Fort Pitt, came there, and inſiſted that the people ſhould not move off, as the land belonged to them, and they had ſettled them there; they added, that ſomething would be talked of about that matter at the treaty ſoon to be at Fort Pitt, and then they would tell the people what they muſt do. This meſſage they ſent, with a belt of Wampum, to the governor. The people ſtill remain on the land, nor did they think proper to ſend a petition, till ſome return ſhould come to the Indians meſſage."

MAY 19. On the eighth Inſtant died in Frederick County, Virginia, Captain ALEXANDER STEPHEN, late an Officer of his Majeſty's Royal American Regiment. He was a Gentleman of Integrity and Bravery. In General Braddock's Engagement he reſcued the Colours of the 44th Regiment from the Enemy, after the Fall of Mr. Halket, and received two Wounds in the Action. He deſtinguiſhed himſelf at the Reduction of Louiſbourg and Quebec; and under the Command of General Murray, on the Heights of Abraham, the famous 28th of April, in which Engagement he received a dangerous Wound, of which he never perfectly recovered.

Extract of a Letter from Fort Pitt, May 4.

"The Conference is almoſt over, and every thing better ſettled than I could have expected; and I think, when the Boundary Line is adjuſted, and the Indians paid for the Lands, every Nation this Way will be perfectly ſatisfied."

In another Letter from Fort Pitt, dated April 26, it is ſaid, "Colonel Reid, with ſeven other Officers, and a Party of 56 Men, of the 34th Regiment, arrived here on the 24th, from the Illinois, without meeting any Interruption on the Way."

Extract of a letter from Alicant Bay, December 4, 1767.

"We had here, the 26th inſtant, as hard a gale of wind as was ever known here, from E. N. E. which laſted two day and nights; it broke down the Mole, drove on ſhore and over-ſet 36 ſail of top-ſail veſſels, 13 of them Engliſh, moſt of which with their crews are loſt. I don't here of any of them belonging to your ſide of the water: We juſt received an account of 28 ſail being loſt in Cadiz Bay, and two wheat loaded ſhips loſt on Cape Pallas."

On Wedneſday the 4th inſtant at the upper Marlborough courſe, Maryland, the following horſes ſtarted for the ſubſcription purſe of one hundred pounds.

Samuel Galloway, Eſqr's brown horſe Selim, aged, carrying ten ſtone. 3 3

Mr. Thomas's brown horſe Buckſkin, 5 years old, carrying eight ſtone ten pound. 4 diſt.

Odds at ſtarting, three to one Selim, againſt the field, five to one the field againſt Figure, five to four Merryman would be diſtanced in the heats, and even bets Buckſkin would be diſtanced the firſt heat. Figure took the lead from the poſt and won the heats with great eaſe.

It is remarked that the laſt heat was run in 8 minutes 52 ſeconds. The ground by a fair meaſurement is full 4 miles.

ST. JOHN, (in Antigua) APRIL 13.

Laſt Sunday about noon the Ship Loyal-Briton, dropt anchor in our road, in whom came his Excellency William Woodley, Eſq; Captain-General and Commander in Chief of the Leeward Iſlands; and on Tueſday about noon his Excellency made his public landing. As his Excellency ſtept into the barge he was ſaluted by the guns of Fort James, and on his landing by a battery of field pieces, placed on this occaſion on Leſſly's wharf. His Excellency was waited on by a Committee of the Hon. the Council and Aſſembly; and the ſtreet from the wharf to the Court-Houſe was lined by Gen. Lambton's regiment, [68th] the troop of Carbineers, and the Blue regiment. After his Excellency's Commiſſion was read in the Court-houſe, and the uſual oaths adminiſtered, an elegant dinner was provided. The healths of our moſt gracious Sovereign, the Royal family, &c. were drank, and the whole was concluded with the greateſt order and harmony.

Laſt Sunday arrived here his Majeſty's ſhip Druid, Capt. Jackſon; and on Monday arrived the Phœnix man of war, Capt. Hollwell, from the coaſt of Africa.

By Capt. Corniſh who arrived at Dominica the 4th inſt. in 32 days from London, we hear that the memorial in favour of a ſeparate Government for that Iſland had met with the approbation of the Lords of trade, but before their report was laid before the Council, another memorial appeared at the Board of trade with the reaſons againſt that meaſure, and the arguments were enforced with ſuch weight that Lord Hillſborough declared there would be no ſeparate Government there for ſome time.

We hear a young Engliſh gentleman is appointed Lieutenant Governor of that Iſland, but his name is not made public.

Extract of a Letter from Dominica, April 10.

—— "A melancholy accident happened here laſt night: Our Preſident Mr. Pringle, with ſome more Gentlemen of the Iſland, went on board the Phœnix man of war to take their leave of Capt. Hollwell, and in returning from the ſhip to the ſhore, the boat they were in filled with water, and it became neceſſary for every man to ſhift for himſelf. The Preſident and Mr. Robertſon our Secretary could not ſwim, and therefore were drowned: The reſt of the gentlemen were picked up by a little boat that happened accidently to hear their cries; it was a mercy they did not all loſe their lives. Some of thoſe who could not ſwim kept faſt to the boat that was ſunk, and by that means kept themſelves above water, and were ſaved; had the Preſident done the ſame he might in all probability have been ſaved, but finding the boat, as he thought, going to the bottom, he was ſo frightened that he ſprung out of her. His death is an irreparable loſs to this Iſland."

We are further informed relative to this moſt melancholy accident, that the Collector and Mr. Stuart were in the boat when ſhe ſunk, that the Collector was ſaved by catching an oar, by which, with great fatigue, he reached the ſhore; that Mr. Stuart by ſwiming ſaved his life; that poor Mr. Pringle held by Mr. Stuart's foot for ſome time, but Mr. Stuart was obliged to quit Mr. Pringle, being too weak to ſupport him longer. The boat they were in was the King's juſt come out new from England, and that they mentioned her being leaky to Capt. Hollwell, who offered them his barge, which they refuſed, not imagining the fatal conſequence that quickly befell them.

APRIL 20. Laſt Wedneſday arrived here the Honourable Anthony Wyke, Eſq; James Chambers, and Abraham Harris, Eſqrs, being a Committee of the Honourable the Council and Aſſembly of Montſerrat, with an Addreſs to his Excellency General Woodley, on his ſafe arrival in his Government. And,

On Monday the Hon. Drewry Ottley, Eſq; Joſeph King, Joſeph Popham, William Fealteau, John Corlet, and Henry Bennet, Eſqrs, being a Committee of the Hon. the Council and Aſſembly of St. Chriſtopher's, addreſſed his Excellency on the ſame occaſion. His Excellency was pleaſed to accept of both congratulations as early marks of their reſpect, with the greateſt politeneſs and affability.

And this afternoon the Honourable John Vandeport, Eſq; the Honourable John Ward, Eſq; William Maynard, and William-Burt Weeks, Eſqrs, being a Committee of the Honourable the Council and Aſſembly of Nevis, will wait on his Excellency with the congratulatory Compliments of that Iſland.

We hear that next week his Excellency intends to viſit the other Iſlands of his government, and that it will not be long before we ſhall have the pleaſure of his return to reſide among us.

SAVANNAH, (in Georgia) MAY 18.

On Wedneſday laſt Iſaac Young, Eſq; was choſen repreſentative in the general aſſembly for Abercorn and Goſhen. And on Friday William Ewen, Joſiah Tattnell, and William Young, Eſqrs, were elected members for Ebenezer and pariſh of St. Matthew.

MAY 25. Wedneſday laſt Lachlan MacGillivray and William Græme, Eſqrs, were choſen repreſentatives in the enſuing general aſſembly of this province for the pariſh of St. George.

His Majeſty's ſhip Bonetta, James Wallace, Eſq; commander, arrived off Sunbury a few days ago from St. Auguſtine.

Monday Jonathan Cochran and William Le Conte, Eſqrs, were elected repreſentatives in the general aſſembly for Great Ogechee and pariſh of St. Philip.

CHARLES-TOWN, JUNE 7.

ON the 25th ult. John Stuart, Eſq; Superintendant of Indian Affairs, ſet out for the Southward.

The Catawba Indians who arrived in Town on the 30th ult. with the Scalps of the Shawaneſe Indians, mentioned in our laſt, were kindly received by his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, who gave them Preſents of Ammunition, &c. and are ſince ſet out on their Return Home.

Laſt Wedneſday embarked and ſailed for New-York, in the Sloop Sally, Jeſſe Hunt, Maſter, Mr. Thomas Ivers, Mr. David Stoddard, &c.

Saturday laſt, being the Birth-Day of our moſt gracious Sovereign GEORGE the Third, who entered the Thirty-firſt Year of his Age, the ſame was celebrated here as uſual, with all poſſible Demonſtrations of Loyalty and Affection, for the many Bleſſings we enjoy under his Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign. The Charlet-Town Regiment of Militia was drawn up on the Bay, from whence they marched to the Green, near the Work-Houſe, where the Artillery Company was alſo drawn up, and were joined by the three Companies of Royal Americans, and the Light Infantry Company, when they were reviewed by his Honour the Governor, and went through their Exerciſe and Firings with great Exactneſs.—At Noon the Cannon were fired from the ſeveral Forts, and Shipping in the Harbour, which was anſwered by the Militia.——After which his Honour gave an elegant Entertainment at Mr. Dillon's, to the Honourable the Members of his Majeſty's Council, the Honourable the Speaker, and ſuch of the Members of the Honourable the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly as were in Town, the Officers civil and military, the Clergy, &c.—In the Evening the Town was handſomely illuminated.

Yeſterday the Ship Union, William Coombes, Maſter, ſailed for London, in whom went Paſſengers, Mr. Theodore Gaillard, junior, Mrs. Pinfold, &c.

Beaufort, Port-Royal, May 2, 1768.

ON Tueſday the 26th day of April laſt, the following ſeamen, belonging to the ſchooner ROBERT & JENNY, ROBERT ORR, Maſter, viz.

JOHN DUNN, mariner, about five feet five inches high, about thirty years of age, well ſet, of a dark complexion, curling hair, very much pitted with the ſmall-pox:

THOMAS BRADLY, mariner, about five feet ſix inches high, and nineteen years of age, very ſlim, of a fair complexion, very much freckled, with ſhort ſtrait ſandy hair:

JAMES BIRD, mariner, about five feet five inches high, and eighteen years of age, well ſet, bandy legged, of a dark complexion, with ſhort ſtrait hair, and very much pitted with the ſmall-pox:

RAN-AWAY from out of Port-Royal river, in the province of South-Carolina, with a new ſquare ſterned ſchooner, of forty-five or forty-ſeven feet keel, ſixteen feet beam, ſix feet two inches hold, from the cieling to the lower part of the beam, the frame entirely of live oak, the beams and plank of pine, with a ſhort quarter deck, no quarter rails, ſquare tuck, with a lumber port on the larboard counter, the cabbin rough done, a cabbin on each ſide, with deep lockers underneath, and ſeats below, with lockers under them; likewiſe a croſs cabbin abaft, a cupboard on the larboard ſide againſt the bulk head, an iron horſe abaft for the main ſheet block, no croſs trees on her maſts, two iron withes on each maſt head, for topmaſts, one iron withe on the end of the boltſprit for a jibboom, a bulk head forward in the hold, one third of the foremaſt before it, and two thirds abaft of the ſaid bulk head. She had on board when carried away, about ſix hundred buſhels of corn in the ears, a parcel of peaſe, potatoes, and live hogs, ſome indico vats, belonging to Mr. William Deveaux; there was alſo on board a negro fellow named JAMES, of a yelloviſh complexion, about 5 feet 9 inches high, has ſome ſcars on his back and ſhoulders; alſo a negro boy named SANCHO, about eight years of age, South-Carolina born, both the property of the ſubſcriber, and a white lad, an apprentice to the ſubſcriber, named JAMES HOGARTY, about fourteen years of age. The ſchooner was not cleared out at any cuſtom-houſe, it is therefore expected, if ſhe is carried into any port belonging to Great-Britain, ſhe will be detained by the cuſtom-houſe officers, and the offenders brought to juſtice. Whoever ſecures, or will give information of the ſaid villains and ſchooner, that the former may be brought to juſtice, and the latter recovered, will be amply and thankfully rewarded, by

ROBERT ORR.

N. B. The ſchooner lately belonged to Meſſrs. KELSALL, & Co. merchants in Beaufort, and purchaſed of them by the ſubſcriber, as will appear by the regiſter, the maſter's name at that time was JOHN ROBERTS, when owned by Kelſall, & Co.

DANIEL BOURDEAUX,

INTENDING ſhortly to depart the province, all perſons having any demands againſt him, are deſired to apply for payment. He would be much obliged to thoſe indebted to him forthwith to diſcharge the ſame.

TO BE SOLD,

A Tract of Land ſituate on George-Town River, containing One Hundred and Seventy Acres, good for Corn, Rice or Indico. Any Perſon inclinable to purchaſe the ſame, may apply for further particulars to the Printer hereof.

TO BE SOLD at vendue, at the uſual place in Charles-Town, on Tueſday the 28th of June inſtant;

A MOST valuable tract of one thouſand acres of land at Combahee, belonging to the eſtate of the Reverend Mr. William Hutſon, deceaſed, about one mile diſtant from a landing, where a veſſel of 200 tons may load; has at leaſt ſeven or 800 acres of ſwamp and ſavannah, thought by good judges to be as good rice land as any in this province, well ſituated and calculated for two plantations, having very good high land for that purpoſe, towards each end of the tract. It is known by, and uſually called GREEN SAVANNAH, bounding ſouthward on lands of Mr. Richard Hutſon, northward on lands late Meſſrs Rogerſon and Timmons, deceaſed, weſtward on lands of the Hon. Daniel Blake, Eſq; and eaſtward on lands of Colonel Heyward; a plat of which may be ſeen in the hands of Mr. Arthur Peronneau, in Charles-Town. The conditions will be credit, if moſt agreeable to the purchaſer, giving approved ſecurity, to

JOHN HODSDEN,
JOHN BARNWELL,
JAMES DONNOM,
} Executors.

THE ſubſcriber takes this method of acquainting the public, that he has opened a ſtore, next to Meſſrs. Hawes and Flagg's colour ſhop on the Bay, near the market, where he retails the beſt old Jamaica, Weſt-India and Northward rum, by any quantity, not leſs than three gallons.—Gentlemen in town and country, maſters of veſſels, and paſſengers, who chuſe to favour him with their cuſtom, may depend on having their liquor in its original purity, and very cheap, for caſh only. WILLIAM FITCH.

N. B. He has likewiſe a few dozen of bottled cyder, ſome very good cordials, loaf and brown ſugar, coffee, cheeſe, ſoap, pigtail and paper tobacco, &c. which he ſells at a very low price.

A Table of Rates of Wharfage of Ships and Merchandize, and of Rates Storage in Charles-Town.

AS I intend to leave the Province ſoon, for three or four Months, do now earneſtly Requeſt that all Perſons indebted to VANDERHORST and SIMONS, or myſelf, that they would immediately diſcharge the ſame, or ſettle to my Satisfaction, otherwiſe their Accounts, &c. will certainly be put in ſuit very ſhortly. ELIAS VANDERHORST.

MR. William Norman, of Beach-hill, has informed me of the following ſtrays, viz.

A brown ſteer, with a ſpeckled rump, marked in the right ear with a ſwallow fork, and a ſmooth crop in his left, his dewlap ſlit, and branded PR in one, and is ſix or ſeven years old.

A brindled ſteer, marked with a ſwallow fork in his left ear, and a ſmooth crop in his right, his dewlap ſlit, and branded as the above, is ſix or ſeven years old.

A ſmall black and white cow, marked as the laſt mentioned ſteer, branded on one rump G, and on the other PR in one, her forehead a little gray, and her dewlap ſlit, ſhe is about five or ſix years old.

A cow all white except her head and neck, which is a red brindle, marked with an upper ſlant in one ear, and an under ſlant in the other, branded PR in one, about ſeven or eight years old.

A cow of the ſame colour, branded and marked as the laſt mentioned, and appears about three or four years old.

Two heifer yearlings, and a bull ditto, neither marked nor branded, calves of the above cows.

A black and white pied ſteer, marked with a crop in his right ear, and a ſwallow fork in his left, branded on one rump A, and on the other PR in one, about ſix years old.

Alſo, a brindled cow, with a young calf, has the ſame mark and brands with the laſt mentioned, and of the ſame age. The owner or owners of the above cattle, muſt prove their property before EDWARD PERRY, J. P.

JOHN FATHERRE informs me of a black horſe, branded on the mounting buttock ⋈ and on the mounting ⋈ M, ſhoulder the ſame, but not very plain, and has ſome white ſaddle ſpots near his ſhoulder. The owner muſt prove his property before me at Parrysbourgh.

SUPPLEMENT to the SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE, and COUNTRY JOURNAL.

TUESDAY, JUNE 7, 1768. No. 131. [Printed by CHARLES CROUCH, in Elliott-ſtreet.]

DAVIES & WAYNE,

OF CHARLES-TOWN;

HAVING aſſigned over to me, in Behalf of their Creditor in England, their Books, Bonds, Notes, Accounts, and other Effects; I HEREBY GIVE NOTICE THEREOF, and adviſe all Perſons whatſoever indebted to them, to ſettle with me, and pay their Debts, as I am determined to put every ſuch Debt in Suit as faſt as I can make them out.

I alſo give the ſame Notice to all Perſons indebted to the Eſtate of ANDREW JOHNSTON, and THOMPSON and HUNTER, deceaſed, late Merchants of this Province.

ROBERT RAPER.

For SALE,

A TRACT of land, containing 650 acres, old meaſure, on Aſhepoo great ſwamp, near the Fiſh-pond Bridge; it is eſteemed by good judges to be one of the beſt tracts, on that ſwamp, and (from its ſituation, proportion of high and low land, &c.) appears to be admirably calculated for a finiſhed rice plantation.

A TRACT, containing 600 acres, conſiſting of a cluſter of iſlands, ſituate on the eaſt ſide of Aſhepoo-river, a little above Bennet's Point. The iſlands are connected by a hard marſh, of which there are ſeveral thouſand acres adjacent, which renders it an excellent and never failing range for cattle, ſufficient to maintain five or ſix hundred head. There is a creek which runs almoſt round the tract, and by digging a ſhort canal to lead it to the river, will make it entirely diſtinct from any other. Pork may be raiſed there to great advantage, as the iſlands abound with acorns; the land is alſo extremely good for corn or indico, and has ſeveral good landings on it; there is now on it a ſmall ſtock of cattle, horſes, hogs, &c. which will be ſold either with, or without the land. Any one diſpoſed to purchaſe, may apply in Charles-Town, to RICHARD HUTSON.

ALL perſons having demands againſt the eſtate of Archibald Starrat, deceaſed, are deſired to make the ſame known by the firſt day of January, 1769, as part of ſaid eſtate will be then remitted to the heirs in Ireland, purſuant to the laſt will and teſtament of the ſaid deceaſed.

ANNE STARRAT, Executrix.
11 m. JOSIAS ALLSTON, Executor.

WHEREAS the Co-Partnerſhip of TEBOUT and JOHNSON expires the 29th of July next, they take this Method of returning Thanks to all their Friends and Cuſtomers for all paſt Favours, and deſires thoſe that have any Demands againſt them to bring them in, and thoſe indebted to them, whoſe Accounts are of a long ſtanding, to make Payment as ſoon as poſſible, that they may be enabled to ſettle with their Creditors.

JOHN TAYLOR,

HAVING removed into King-ſtreet, oppoſite Jane's alley, begs the favour of all thoſe to whom he is indebted, for a continuance of their cuſtom, as at preſent he has no other way of paying them, but by working off.

N. B. All perſons indebted to the ſaid John Taylor, to and from June 1765, are deſired to make immediate payment to him, as he will prove all other payments to be illegal. He likewiſe informs them, that he is determined to proſecute, as far as the law will extend, all thoſe that have ſettled accounts unjuſtly on his books during his confinement, as it was not in his power to authorize any perſon. 6 m.

TO BE SOLD,

A SMALL Tract of 77 Acres of Land, about two Miles from Charles-Town, very pleaſantly ſituated, being open to the Sea, belonging to Governor Boone. Any Perſon wanting to purchaſe the ſame, may apply to James Poſtell, Eſq; or ROBERT RAPER.

THE Subſcriber having good Accommodations for Boarders, would be glad of the Cuſtom of her Country Friends, who may depend on being faithfully ſerved, and meeting with the genteeleſt Treatment.

The BARBER's BUSINESS is carried on as uſual, and would be obliged to thoſe who chooſe to favour her with their Cuſtom. ELIZABETH BUTLER.

MR. BLAKE who teaches the GERMAN FLUTE, is removed from Mr. Gray's on the Bay, to a private Room at Mr. Pearce's in Church-Street, where he begs the Gentlemen (that have been pleaſed to put themſelves under his Tuition) to attend on the uſual Days.
